

Quality Policy

Ford & Stanley Limited is a talent services organisation that supports rail and engineering businesses in terms of recruitment, business consultancy and promotes positive wellbeing in the workplace

Ford & Stanley Limited is a member of the Recruitment and Employment Confederation (REC) and adheres to their Code of Professional Practice.

Our core company values include Passion to Win, Customer Focus, Innovation, Fair Play and Trust. Therefore, it is our primary objective to achieve excellence in every aspect of our service provision and organisation in its entirety, whilst providing the highest standard of recruitment services for our clients, candidates, shareholders and society at large.

Ford & Stanley Limited Quality Policy Statement

In line with the ISO 9001 and any other legislation, progress towards the achievements of such objectives will be regularly monitored and reported and forms part of our continuous quality review process.

To this end, the policy will consistently aim to achieve the following:

- High Levels of Customer Satisfaction through objectives that are set and aimed at continuous improvement and innovation.
- Achieve the agreed commercial and financial targets
- Provide our services in a safe manner therefore protecting our reputation, value, assets and above all the people
- Prevent non-conformances and protect revenue
- A highly motivated, trained and competent workforce who share and believe in Ford & Stanley's core values.

Notwithstanding the above, I, as Chairman of Ford & Stanley along with the board of directors will strive to create an environment that is inclusive and encourages innovation and continual improvement.

The Quality Policy is viewed as a key part of our management system and will be maintained and continually reviewed by the operational leadership team with the Chairman retaining the executive control of the policy and management system. All employees and associates of Ford & Stanley are expected to offer their full commitment and support by ensuring that the companies Quality objectives are achieved. Any changes to the policy will be communicated in full to employees, associates and clients where reasonably possible.
